1. The conference room service, who seems to be batting us around like a badminton bird, has moved our two April meetings from 4H-305 to 4H-205. The room has not changed for our discussion of DINOSAUR BEACH. Well, a little bit of confusion keeps us on our toes. The discussion of DINOSAUR BEACH is this coming Wednesday.

2. The book exchange was the best attended we have had. I will try to keep these events happening at three-month intervals.

3. Following are the results of the poll to decide on library purchases:
